Southside Coalition for Survival

The southside community faces a serious crisis if President Nixon's cuts in domestic programs (OEO, HEW, etc.) take effect. The effects of federal cuts mean that virtually all social service programs on the southside will be phased out or severely cut back.

Thirty three (33) social service agencies, organizations and groups on the southside, including the 16th Street Community Health Center, have joined together to form the Southside Coalition for Survival. The coalition is taking action to try and stop the cutbacks or find other sources of support from the city, county and state. The coalition feels the southside has been shortchanged in the past. (Last year more than 20 million dollars of federal money for social service programs and general urban development came to Milwaukee; the southside, with 30% of the low income residents of the City, received less than 2 million dollars.) The coalition is determined that the southside gets its fair share in the future.

The coalition needs the support of all southside residents. A community meeting to discuss this issue and enlist your active support will be held in the next month, as soon as the date is set you'll be immediately notified. We hope you and your neighbors will join us in this important activity.
